LUMBER FIRE AT CLEVELAND.

Incendiary Blaze Causes Losses Aggregating $300,000.

Cleveland, June 3.-Fire, supposed to be of incendiary origin, to-day caused losses aggregating $700,000, in the lum-ber district along the river front, Sevgral acres covered with big lumber piles were swept clean by the flames.

The fire started in the box factory of the J. N. Hahn Company, and spread to the lumber yards of the Nicola, Stone & Meyers Company, and the Guy & Ralph Gray Company. At one time the fire threatened to wipe out the entire lum-ber district and every available engine and fireboat was called into service.

SAYS WOMAN SHOT HIM.

Richard Finnegan Dies Near

Butte With Accusation on Lips. St. Paul June 35 .- A special to the Dispatch from Butte, Mont., says: Richard J. Finnegan, who was found nearly dead from bullet wounds in a house near Mount Moriah Cemetery last night, died to-day.

Before he died he made a statement that Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison shot him four times while he was asleep. Mrs. Morrison has not yet been found, but it is said she went to the hills, where she committed
